Title: Captain's Log 8

Author: Johne

What have I done...what...I cannot...these vile creatures...I have managed to lock them away within the central cargo hold and I have destroyed the winch assembly needed to remove the cargo hold's cover. I can only hope my efforts to lock away the repair parts will deter any foolish enough to start smashing the supply barrels in an attempt to recover the locker keys...they're all gone now...it is only I now, forever damned to this watery grave...
